Yes, we have kittens!

spcaLA offers $135 adoption fee for two kittens or cats

Los Angeles, CA – Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Los Angeles (spcaLA) has kittens, lots and lots of kittens. Of the more than 100 cats available for adoption at spcaLA locations, over half of them are under a year old. To encourage kitten (and cat) adoptions, and to celebrate spcaLA's 135th birthday, spcaLA announces a special "Friends for Life" $135 adoption fee for two cats or kittens through November 17, 2013.

"Unlike other areas of the country, kittens never seem to be in short supply in Los Angeles," said spcaLA President, Madeline Bernstein. "The weather is always nice, and people continue to let their unsterilized cats roam free, so they just keep breeding."

Often, adopting kittens or cats as a pair is better for the animals, and the adopter. Instead of letting kitten antics out on your furniture or ankles, felines play happily together, and keep each other entertained while you're at work or otherwise engaged. The play and companionship a bonded pair of cats share helps to make them healthier, happier family pets.

spcaLA thoroughly screens adopters, and all adopters must complete the adoption process. The Friends for Life adoption special of $135 for two cats or kittens is available at all spcaLA Pet Adoption Centers from October 23, 2013 to November 17, 2013. The regular adoption fee for two cats or kittens is $180.
