CATCHING UP WITH...
Puppy Bowl All-Stars!

AFTER STEALING HEARTS IN LAST YEAR'S GAME, THESE PUPS FOUND THEIR FOREVER HOMES

By CHANCELLOR AGARD

BENTLEY, 18 MONTHS
Known as Papi during his Puppy Bowl glory days, "he loves going on long runs with me," new owner Randy Tauro of Hollis, N.H., says of the corgi mix.

CARA, 18 MONTHS
When this part Shih Tzu and part Cavalier King Charles spaniel isn't sleeping, she's playing with Gunnar, 3 (below), and Callie, 8 months. "She genuinely loves them," say owners Lee, 39, and Erin Clark, 35, of Celebration, Fla.

HENRY, 18 MONTHS
This clumber spaniel is living a dream life in De Soto, Iowa. He enjoys annual road trips to Texas with his owners, Becky and Steve Massure, and "loves hanging out in the pool."
Rosie, 18 months
"Rosie is fearless," says owner Linda Goy (above right), who adopted her family's cocker spaniel, Rosie. The Redondo Beach, Calif., pup loves to "run like crazy—playing tag with the other dogs" at doggie day camp.

Gray, 16 months

The Puppy Bowl, which features 84 rescue puppies, was pre-taped in N.Y.C. A look at some of the standouts:

Timon
- Breed: Terrier
- Hometown: Miami
- Executive producer Melinda Toporoff says Timon, the 13-week-old, is one of the "spunkiest puppies to ever play the game."

Wrinkles
- Breed: Shar-pei
- Hometown: St. Cloud, Fla.
- Spoiler Alert! In the middle of the action, this irresistible 12-week-old takes an impromptu nap on the field.

Marley
- Breed: Labrador retriever
- Hometown: Souderton, Pa.
- "Strength, determination, good looks—14-week-old Marley's got it all," says Toporoff.

Cooper
- Breed: Great Pyrenees-collie
- Hometown: Chicago
- "His good attitude pays off in spades during the big game," says Toporoff of the 15-week-old.
