FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

This year will be loud.

Political candidates will demand your attention. Wildfires, hurricanes, and other natural disasters will devastate. Wrongs will need righting. And, you will respond.

You are compassionate and impassioned. After all, you support spcaLA – an agency whose mission is to prevent cruelty to animals through Education, Law Enforcement, Intervention, and Advocacy.

The generosity of caring people like you allows spcaLA to:

- Engage youth and children in empathy-based animal welfare education and social-emotional learning; and offer violence intervention and support services for adults and families;
- Investigate animal cruelty; provide continuing education for fellow law enforcement professionals; and deploy our Disaster Animal Response Team (DART™);
- Provide behavior enrichment and training, veterinary care, safe shelter, nourishing food, and much more to thousands of abused and abandoned animals annually.

As we march into 2020, please continue to hear the call of local abused and abandoned animals.

Please, support your spcaLA. Thank you,

Madeline Bernstein
President, spcaLA

P.S. There is no national spca or humane society, nor is spcaLA a chapter of any group.
